

CONSULTING FOR YOUR INTERNATIONAL TAX NEEDS

UHY Advisors' team of international tax professionals provides tax consulting and compliance services for U.S. investment abroad and for foreign investment into the U.S.

For clients whose transactions and investments cross borders, international tax consulting services are an indispensable part of business planning. For outbound planning involving U.S. taxpayers doing business in other countries, not only is it important to understand the tax system of the destination country, but also to plan for the impact back in the U.S.

Investors in the U.S. from other countries benefit from U.S. tax planning (inbound planning), while considering the impact for tax purposes at home and in the other countries where they have operations.

EXPERTISE

Because international business can be full of unknowns, UHY Advisors offers breadth and depth of experience for a full range of international tax issues. From foreign tax structuring services to helping executives navigate their way through foreign assignments, our team of international tax professionals can help solve complex international tax matters, both in the U.S. and abroad, with access to global resources in more than 50 countries. Our professionals use a strategic, integrated approach to tax planning across borders and cultures, and it is our mission to identify and resolve tax issues to help avoid unwelcome surprises.

SOLUTIONS

As an independent member of UHY International, we work closely with other member firms in over 189 offices worldwide. We pride ourselves on our knowledge of international transactions, on our personal commitment to serving our clients as they grow and prosper in the global marketplace, and on our dedication to the highest professional standards. Because tax planning is only one component of international business, we emphasize the need for teamwork (including legal, financial, and operational) so that tax planning evolves within our clients' overall business objectives.
