
ALEX JACOBS
ajacobs@uhy-us.com

Alex is a Project Manager with UHY Advisors FLVS, Inc. based in Dallas, and is a member of the eDiscovery & Digital Forensics Practice Group.

Professional Experience:

- Five years of experience as a project manager in the eDiscovery field. Nine years as a litigation support professional.
 - Responsible for the management of project life-cycles for numerous large-scale litigations.

- Managed eDiscovery projects involving Fortune 500 companies in the following industries:
 - Software
 - Financial Services
 - Supply Chain and Fulfillment
 - Insurance
 - Defense and Aerospace

- Experienced in scoping, designing and configuring review platforms, management of client review from a performance and workflow perspective, and management of the production of relevant data.

- Managed large DOJ investigation for client that involved millions of records for review and production, all in a hosted solution.

- Consulted with Law Firms to assist with most efficient method of reviewing and producing ESI in large matters.

- Oversaw, tested, and approved numerous eDiscovery Software Development projects in order to accommodate specific litigation needs and enhance development life-cycles.

- Nine years of experience in the Litigation Support field, including but not limited to:
 - Operations Manager
 - National Coordinator for all digital workflow for eight offices
 - Data Analyst
 - Local/Regional/National Project Manager

Background:

- University of Texas at Austin, Economics

- Client Solutions Analyst – Scarab Consulting, Austin, TX – 04/07-08/08

- Senior Project Manager – ImageNet, Dallas, TX – 10/06-04/07

- National Imaging Coordinator - ImageNet, Dallas, TX – 01/05-10/06

-
- Regional Project Manager – ImageNet/2Xi, Dallas, TX – 08/04-01/05