
DAVID HERMAN
dave.herman@uhy-us.com

Dave is a Sr. Consultant with UHY Advisors FLVS Inc. in the eDiscovery & Digital Forensics Practice Group.

Professional Experience:

Dave has over ten years of experience in international project management with expertise in creating process improvements, developing strategic plans to achieve objectives, solving problems in a diplomatic and cost effective manner, providing and implementing technical solutions to improve net profit and empowering team members to achieve personal best and increase productivity.

Relevant Employment Experience:

- Joined the firm in 2007
- Worked for two years as a Project Manager for Electronic Evidence Discovery Inc. in New York, NY.
 - Managed all aspects of complex electronic evidence discovery projects.
 - Handled all e-discovery aspects of a multi-million dollar pharmaceutical matter with over 10 terabytes of native data and 3 million pages of scan set documents.
 - Successfully completed e-discovery process for more than 25 clients in a variety of industries including insurance, home mortgage, automotive, manufacturing, finance and technology.
 - Advanced knowledge of e-discovery processes and procedures including data collection, processing, hosting, and production methodologies.
 - Management of EED's NYC quick print and quick tech project office.
- Began his career as a Sr. Project Manager for Carlson Companies Inc. working in their Asia Pacific and Latin American regions.
 - Led a team of technical and business analysts on numerous projects.
 - Managed technical projects in two regions (comprising 54 countries).
 - Trained and mentored staff on key projects.
 - Awarded the Imperial Honor Award for Outstanding Project Management which is the highest award achievable for non-executive employees.

Education Background:

- B.A., Management Information Systems, University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire (1997)
- IT Project Management Program, Carlson School of Business, University of MN
- Mini Masters- Software Development & Design, St. Thomas University
- International Study Abroad Program, Southern Cross University, Australia

Selected Speaking Engagements:

- "eDiscovery & Digital Forensics Overview", Speaker, CLE Presentation, Shipman & Goodwin (April 2008)
- "eDiscovery & Digital Forensics: The Litigation Lifecycle", Speaker, CLE Presentation, Pullman & Comley (April 2008)
- "eDiscovery & Digital Forensics: A Practical Overview From A Different Perspective", Featured Speaker, CLE Presentation, Various Organizations (August 2007)
- "Identifying and Preserving Potentially Relevant Data Sources in Trade Secret Theft & Patent Infringement Matters", Featured Speaker, CLE Presentation, Foley Lardner (July 2007)
- "Identifying and Preserving Potentially Relevant Data Sources at the Onset of a Legal Matter or Internal Investigation", Featured Speaker, IQPC 2nd Annual eDiscovery Conference (June 2007)

Testimony Experience:

- Oral testimony before a Grand Jury and the Pennsylvania District Attorney in a matter concerning the PA House Democratic Caucus. eDiscovery exhibits based on backup tape cataloging and analysis work performed by UHY for the matter were generated, and, testimony on these exhibits was provided; May, 2007.
- Assisted UHY Management with written and oral testimony in Master-Halco, Inc. v. Scillia, Dowling & Natarelli, LLC ET AL., October, 2007.